The power of Isabelle Miller

NXB Ho Chi Minh City Synthesis has just introduced the work “The daughter of the Phoenix - Hope is my path ” by author Isabelle Müller, by Trang Hong Quang translator. Isabelle Müller is the youngest child in a family of 5 children, mother is Vietnamese, father is French. The work tells the story of the author, who does not allow himself to be overwhelmed by misfortune, to rise to master his life.

By Isabelle Müller, the author is working at the Ho Chi Minh Book. Photo NXB TO Coh Chi Minh City.

With the motto of life “From every stone they throw in front of us, we will build a road ”, Isabelle Müller has risen from a village whose habitat is still racist. , along with personal misfortunes. The author's story not only talks about finding happiness but also about the way to find it. Đó is the turning of unhappiness into happiness, is learning how to turn the negative spiral into a positive spiral. Even if she “has experienced bad things, including sexual abuse, psychological terrorism, exhaustion, exclusion, discrimination, poverty, betrayal ”, but she always tell yourself: “I have also experienced true love, warmth, affection, encouragement, willingness to help, empathy, friendship, luck and happiness. And I am allowed to live healthy here on earth and enjoy this life ”.

The story of Isabelle Müller's life brings strength, hope, positive and courageous life to all, especially women who have been sexually abused, discriminated against. The work encourages people to ask questions about things in life and themselves to conquer their own fears, believe in good things, live with optimism, as she shares: “With our anger and hatred breaking everything, but with patience and love we can build a temple from nothingness ”.
