The book reached the top 5 final of the 2015 Kindle Storyteller Award and ranked best seller on the Amazon (Germany) page. Attending was the former Vice President of Truong Duc Hoa, who had great merit in bringing this work to VN. Ms. Truong Duc Hoa said: "I met Isabelle Müller on a business trip through Europe and was really moved by the affection of a Vietnamese girl who was heading towards her roots".

According to author Isabelle Müller, because in the person carrying two European-Asian bloodlines (the father is French), from an early age she has cherished writing books about her special mother. At the age of 15, she began to conduct careful recording through her mother's account, until 30 years later she accepted the pen and completed the work within only 2 years. Ms. Loan's life experienced a lot of bitterness due to the old "male disdain for women". She was not allowed to go to school, had to be reeled, and had to go from Ha Tinh to Nam Dinh, Hanoi, Bac Ninh, Hai Phong ..., had almost been sold to brothels, but where did she try to work? hired to earn a living.

The entire royalty of the book will be transferred to the Loan Charity Fund (Loan Stiftung) founded by the author to support ethnic minority children north of VN.
