

HOTLINE: 0903.343.439 - HOTLINE Released: 0819.123.127 - BUYING A NOTICE

Job Ideal life Straighten Exclusive news Market

NGƯỜI LAO ĐỘNG 24h over

Search

Register for VIP reader package

NEWS INTERNATIONAL LABOR READER NET ZERO ECONOMICS HEALTH EDUCATION LAW CULTURE - LIT

Culture - Culture

The child's reading skills come from the family

H.Giang

06/20/2022 02:10

The HCM TP Synthetic Publishing House has just organized exchanges, introducing two works "Hip Hop in the Land of Ellsaby" (Isabelle Müller) and "Sir Candy" (Quantum Tran).

"Hip Hop in Ellsaby's country" is transliterated from the book of a writer with two French-Vietnamese blood and "Son Candy" as her debut work born in 2007. The theme throughout and also the highlight of these two works is fantasy adventures in the childhood world.

News read a lot

NSUT Vo Minh Lam is a director

Many artists and young singers celebrate at the home of singer Jint Van - Khac Zhao

The program "Gewelts of grace" visits and presents gifts to NSND Ha Dung

Artist who achieved the 20th anniversary of the musician Bac Son

Beware of the 2025 Pepper festival in HCM City

If Isabelle Müller writes "Hip Hop in Ellsaby's land" filled with hope with the desire to comfort a child's sad mood when losing a loved one, Quynh Tran writes "Sir Candy" to tell the fight. A little girl's reluctant adventure in the pitfalls always lurks under the sweet cover.

By Isabelle Müller. (Photos provided by NXB Synthetic HCM TP)

At the exchange, the role of orientation and development of a reading culture for children was dissected and discussed. Author Isabelle Müller affirmed the most solid foundation in developing children's reading skills comes from family.

Family representative author Quynh Tran said that the role of parents is extremely important: "Adults need to maintain reading habits for children to imitate, need to prepare many titles with good content for children to find themselves. be your favorite genre ... ".

Related news

VIDEO:
Spoken books that promote community reading culture
(NLDO) -...

Books spoken are part of the reading culture

Building a reading culture among young people

Share

reading skills reading habits family Reading culture publisher

debut work children

Be the first to comment on the post!

Share your comments

Submit comment

DO NOT MISS