Writer Isabelle Müller and upland students

Isabelle Müller founded the Loan - Stiftung Foundation in 2016, based in Germany, with the aim to support poor Vietnamese children to have a better life. The main source of inspiration for the foundation was Isabelle Muller's Vietnamese mother - Ms. Bean Thi Cuc (self Loan). After 1954, Ms. Loan followed her husband to settle in France, life facing many economic difficulties, racism ... Beyond all, Ms. Loan takes care, teaches 5 large, mature children, in which, youngest daughter Isabelle Müller inherited many good qualities from her mother.

Few know that Isabelle Müller has a pitiful childhood, turning in poverty, violence, betrayal, even persecution. Two books "Loan - From the life of a phoenix bird" (published in 2018) and "The daughter of the phoenix bird - Hope is my path" (published in 2022) by Isabelle Müller are very tearful stories, full of life and courage towards the future of her mother and child. Readers will see a woman who can be a school, not doomed to fate, rise to master her life and eventually become a successful businessman in Germany.

Children's book by Isabelle Müller

The woman who made the bridge to bring the book back to Vietnam was the former Vice President of Truong USA. On a European business trip, she stopped in Germany, introduced the book and was very touched by the ups and downs, the rising power of the Vietnamese woman. "Loan" launched Vietnamese readers in early March 2018 as a meaningful gift for women.

The book "The daughter of the phoenix - Hope is my path" (published in 2022) by Isabelle Müller

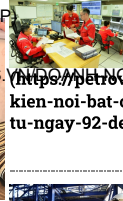

Recently, Isabelle Müller released the story "Hip Hop in the Land of Ellsaby" (Hip Hop in Ellsaby's country). Creativity is based on a true story. That was 20 years ago, when the beloved dog of a neighbor girl living near Isabelle's house suddenly died, seriously affecting the psychology of the little boss. She became depressed and no longer seemed to find the joy of living.

At that time there were very few children's literary works on the topics "farewell" or "death" so Isabelle Müller told herself to write a story to read to her. , the desire to appease the young soul. The content of the story revolves around the persistent friendship of the dog Titus and the little flea Hip Hop. One day, the dog holding the Titus house suddenly died, Hip Hop was determined to set out to find his deceased friend with the desire to meet one last time. Listened to the land of Ellsaby, the chance to meet my best friend Titus has arrived. Hip Hop after so many attempts "scratching peeling skin" has found a way to get there, hiding in the soap bubble flying high flying

Writer Isabelle Müller

Before coming to Vietnam's top places many difficulties Ha Giang, Isabelle Müller - author of the 1st Prize-winning book in 5 good books in Germany in 2015 - used the entire royalty to establish the Loan - Stifung charity with the motto "Farewell for a better future for teenagers around the world ", carry out projects to help students of ethnic minorities, difficult pieces of life in upland Vietnam.

In just the first 2 years of operation, the Loan - Stifung Foundation has implemented 12 programs and projects with a total grant of about 6.8 billion VND (approximately 317,035,000 USD). Up to now, over 6 years of operation, the Loan - Stifung Foundation has been implementing 35 projects, of which 29 projects have been completed and handed over for a total of 1 million euros. In addition to supporting poor provinces in the Northern Mountains such as Ha Giang, Cao Bang, Yen Bai, Laos Cai ..., the Loan - Stifung Foundation also helps children with severe difficulties in historic floods in October. -2020 in Ha Tinh - the hometown of Isabelle Mülle. Over the years, projects have focused on building kindergartens, elementary schools, libraries, dormitories, toilets, utensils support, learning equipment, and orphan scholarships. .. Projects are highly recognized and appreciated by the local government for their humanity and practicality. Recently, the project "Books for a good future " is attracting the attention of many philanthropists.

Talking about the plans in the near future, Isabelle Müller looks forward to continuing to bring Vietnamese children a better future through educational projects. "Education has the power to inspire the mind, broaden the horizon and can help you have the power to protect themselves. I am very concerned about gender equality, protecting women. I look forward to receiving companionship, interest, and sharing from domestic organizations so that the projects we deploy in Vietnam are even more effective ", Isabelle Müller said.

Isabelle Müller was born on May 25, 1964 in Tours (France), the youngest child in a family of 5 children. Her mother is Vietnamese and her father is French. She grew up in poor conditions in a small French village. After graduating from high school, she studied languages (Germany, England and Russia) at Francois Rabelais University (Tours, France) and at the Center d'Etudes Pratiques de Langues Vivantes (Tours, France). Since 1985, she has worked in Germany as an interpreter. Together with her mother, Ba Thi Nuc (Self Loan), Isabelle Müller made trips to Southeast Asia in the 90s of the twentieth century to learn about her Vietnamese roots.
