

The life story of a strong woman

Reading | Isabelle Müller describes her mother's odyssey / Alongside terrible experiences, there are also bright spots

It comes at just the right time. With her new book, "Loan - From the Life of a Phoenix," Schömburg-based author Isabelle Müller aims to awaken people.

By Bettina Bausch

Calw-Altburg. »The book about my mother's life is also an anti-war book. Because in war, the civilians, the women and Children suffer the most, emphasizes the author. And In fact, the book presented in the foyer of the Börlind company made the audience extremely thoughtful, because they had heard the unusual story of a strong woman who, despite all adversities, became a free, self-determined life fought through. The author describes her mother's childhood and youth in a dramatic way. The middle of the last century. The idiosyncratic and rebellious Vietnamese woman Loan experiences a long and dangerous odyssey through Vietnam, France and Algeria.

According to the arrangement "married"

Even as a child, the girl is supposed to be, after consultation with Fathers are "married".

Author Isabelle Müller (right) answered questions in personal conversations after the reading. many questions.

Photo: Bausch

»So everything is clear. As soon as Cúc is ripe, we arrange the wedding. I get the field and her son also brings us the two Pigs," she hears her father say. When he suddenly dies, it is not the mother who has the eldest son the family has the say. This is a heartless despot and mistreats his Sister after an escape attempt. "Without a word say, he hit me with the Fist in the face, so hard that I fell to the ground. Then he grabbed me by the hair and dragged me into our hut," Loan remembers. At the age of almost twelve Years ago, the young Girls with consent the mother. Hard

Years in which she has to struggle through life without the support and security of her family.

Time and again, the exciting reading also like the terrible suffering of the Vietnamese under the French colonial rulers, the Japanese attack in Second World War and the Division of Vietnam and later France's war against Algeria. The Away from Isabelle Müller's Mother spends some time Vietnam and later to Algeria and France. In addition bad experiences there are always bright spots in her difficult life. »It There were also good people who took care of her and her have helped us further," emphasizes the daughter.

Tough fighting about human rights

Loan married a Frenchman and lived with her family in France. The readings painted the unusual life of a strong woman who followed her liberating path despite all adversities. The listeners knew that she was a book, that shows how women's power and fights for elementary Human rights finally can lead to success.

Twelve-year-old Claudia Peter from Neuhengstett accompanied the reading with demanding piano pieces and received thunderous applause.

For a long time, a subsequent drinks still discussed intensively about what they had heard. The proceeds from the The event benefits Oben-Auf, an association dedicated to promoting the arts among children and young people in the region.

Briefly noted

Nicholas comes to Workers' Welfare Association
Calw. At the Workers' Welfare Association (AWO) Calw, Coffee house at Postgasse 2 A meeting will take place this Saturday, December 5, starting at 3 p.m. Visitors are to sing together and celebrations. For Food and drink are provided. Santa Claus also has his Coming announced.

reader opinion

A place in the sun

SUBJECT: Complaints management

The city of Calw has on its Homepage the good facility of the ideas and complaints managements. Here citizens can express their constructive criticism, their suggestions, Send suggestions, praise and other information quickly and directly to the city administration. The Calw City Senior Citizens Council has of this opportunity in the interest of the Calw senior citizens and seniors have often used it. This time It is about a defective and missing bench in Walkmühlenweg. A friendly employee the city administration responded promptly. Now there is a Bench in the sun and a will be set up as needed. The City Senior Citizens' Council would like to thank the senior citizens for the unbureaucratic and friendly

Thank you for your help. Here it was "only" about a bank, but it is good to know that there is a open ear for wishes and Suggestions from the public and, if possible, provides quick help.

Christine Kaschützke | Calw City Senior Citizens Council

Write to us!
Schwarzwälder Bote
Lederstraße 23
75365 Calw
Fax: 07051/2 00 77
Email: redaktioncalw@schwarzwaelder-bote.de

Your letters do not have to be The editorial opinion is the same as that of the editors. We reserve the right Cuts. Please forget You do not know your sender.

We congratulate

SATURDAY SIMPLY
Ivan Baki, 70 years old.
NEUWEILER
Annemarie Beck, Forststraße 8, Hofstett, 75 years old;
Gerda Stoll, Mesnergässle 14, Oberkollwangen, 75 years old.

SUNDAY OSTELSHEIM
Ursula Kübler, Ostelsheim, 75 years old.
BAD LIEBENZELL
Helga Harpke, Luchsweg 9, Monakam, 85 years old; Erika Linde, Ginsterweg 9, Bad Liebenzell, 80 years old.

Important change: An amendment to the Federal Registration Act, effective November 1, only allows registration authorities to report birthdays of 70, 75, 80, 85, etc. Publication outside of this scope is still possible upon request in our "Congratulations" section for birthdays starting at 70. Please write to: Schwarzwälder Bote, Lederstraße 23, 75365 Calw, redaktioncalw@schwarzwaelder-bote.de a few days in advance.

Image film for music school

Student project | Cooperation with SRH

By Annette Selter-Gehring

Calw. For an image film, the six students of the SRH University of Business and Media in Calw in Framework of an examination paper for the Calw Music School, they did not get only a good grade. At the public presentation in the SRH rewarded the young men and women for their work great praise from all sides. Music school director Dieter Haag said: »This image film is for me in my last year in office a special gift.« Not only the direct proximity between music and university in Calw gives hope for further cooperation. Initial interest in a similar Project has already been the national and international well-known Aurelius singer-boys have been expressed, so Haag, who promotes the creative potential of students and the emphasized the pleasant cooperation. »At the joint meetings, the students not only good ideas, but always in a good mood," says Haag, who was pleased that SRH lecturer Simon Heidt, who the project together with Lecturer Eva Waas accompanied the group, and a former Calw music student was also on board. Overall, it is a win-win situation, which, according to Haag, in other areas of city should be used. Department gains profile For SRH Director Andreas König, the project was a successful cooperation between the university and regional institutions. »So must be university," said

King in relation to the linking of theoretical Content and practical implementation. He was enthusiastic The image film that the students created for the course »Audiovisual Communication« emphasized the head of the department, Thomas Müller, who further cooperation with the music school hopes because: »Such projects give the Media Department Profile.« The tasks of the Students were responsible for planning the film, customer meetings, filming, Interviews, video editing and the presentation of the work. In the film, the The diverse offerings of the Calw Music School are presented. Orchestra and instrument training are also presented in impressive sequences and Pictures with surprising Perspectives shown how Bal-

SRH and the music school have cooperated.

Photo: Selter-Gehring

lett and the Aurelius Choir. Students and instructors have their say, as do music school director Haag and administrative director Sebastian Weber, who explain the institution's concept. The work of the circle of friends is addressed as well as the Sponsors.

Personality-building
The effect of the film is of course underlined through music. With the Final word »small in and big out« it is also shown that the music school can have a personality-forming effect.

Responsible for the film the students Thea Sybille Frohmaier, Sabi-ne-Marissa Halenke, Jessica Szabo, Rasina Wedel, Bernhard Zeitler and Kibrom Zereyohannes. The Image film via a link the homepage of the Calw Music School, on the homepage of the SRH Calw and on YouTube.

A word for Saturday

Those who share become rich and not poor

Dear reader, we Protestants have Legends about saints are certainly a problem for us, but there's one about Saint Nicholas, whom we'll be thinking about tomorrow, that's truly worth considering. It particularly touches me because it expresses profound wisdom.

At the beginning of the fourth century, Nicholas became bishop of the port city of Myra in Asia Minor. One year later, a famine struck the city, and the population lost all courage and all Hope. Three imperial ships entered the harbor, fully loaded with grain to be transported onward to Constantinople.

People learned that and ran to the harbor. Bishop Nicholas also set out to speak with the captain, but he refused to accept any of the grain.

give, after all it belonged to the emperor and he himself was a loyal, dutiful man.

Bishop Nicholas did not allow relaxed, he appealed urgently to see the people's suffering and to alleviate it.

What happened? The captain relented and had the grain carried from the ship to the people by the sackful. A miraculous thing happened: The ship was unloaded, but it didn't get any lighter. And when the

When Pitän finally arrived in Constantinople with the remains of the cargo, not a single sack was missing.

Isn't that wonderful? Yes, that's it! And the deep ur-

Christian wisdom contained in this story is this: whoever shares, whoever gives away, whoever

By Heike Ehmer-Stolch

who is generous will not become poor, but truly rich. Whoever opens his heart to others, to the weaker, to the poor, the sick or those in need,

He himself is given a gift. Gifted with joy, gifted with gratitude, gifted with love. Just as a candle does not diminish when its light is shared, so it is with love. Sharing and passing it on makes it shine even brighter.

I wish you a

Happy St. Nicholas Day tomorrow, may your heart be wide, may it give freely and also receive happily!

u Heike Ehmer-Stolch is Pastor in Ostelsheim