Rural Women Criesbach

On the faces of rural women Riesbach reflected different emotions: deep compassion, admiration or disgust

The women participated in the reading Author Isabelle Müller from her autobiography "Phoenix's Daughter." With vivid descriptions led the 46-year-old Eurasian through their lives, marked by bitter poverty, discrimination and sexual abuse by his own father. "I grabbed by the hair and he pulled out of hell," said the Author. Her life story is and helpless and needy people. Isabelle Müller's career fits in with the current Headlines. "I forgave my father for the unforgivable."

the author finished her reading.
She called out to those present different feelings.
The chairwoman expressed her sincere thanks

Muschelkalk Museum

A true Ingelfinger knows the local grape varieties, the flourishing industries, and he has Ever heard of Friedrich Ludwig? But if you ask, where the Muschelkalk tiger or the Panzerquerkopf can be found,

The Ingelfingen Senior Citizens' Council and many guests from Künzelsau visited the Senckenberg Museum in Frankfurt. They not only studied the exhibits, but also learned about the museum's operations.

then you rarely get the right answer. It has not yet word got around that in Muschelkalkmuseum dinosaurs can be seen that have such attractive names. The Ingelfingen Senior Citizens' Council (ISR) has taken on the ambitious

Jehovah's Witnesses

Can God still provide real help be? A one-day event by Jehovah's Witnesses with the motto "Take refuge in Jehovah" in Büchenbach near Nuremberg answered this question for the believers.
The call is to the Bible, the Psalm 118, taken from. Crises in Politics, business, and the church confirmed this statement. Trusting in people leads to disappointment, they say. But God never disappoints them. Jehovah's Witnesses from Öhringen and the surrounding area were there-grateful to receive answers from the Bible to the question of how God can give you security – today and in the future.

The guest speaker Peter Mitrega from the German headquarters in his remarks especially how God is already working for that provides people with care – through a "Place of refuge." He explained the positive effects if one finds refuge in God and not be fooled by false promises and ideas of let people influence me.

Mother-child circle

"I would like a pretzel." Anyone with Children are out and about in the city knows this sentence only too well. The The mother-child group of the Öhringen Child Protection Association had therefore once during the production of the portioning to to the finished pretzel.

every manufacturing process. The highlight was when the Children and parents try themselves were allowed to form a pretzel. They had to realize that this is not is so simple and that they prefer leave it to the professionals. Finally every child still has a warm Pretzels, fresh from the oven. It was a very interesting morning, and the children still tell us today that the pretzels drive through a shower and the Parents now enjoy the pretzels especially since they know that every step is handwork and that a lot of manual work and time behind a pretzel.

AOB rehearses for concert for intensive preparation for the The Brettachtal Accordion Orchestra held its spring concert on last weekend in February for rehearsals, in addition to the weekly orchestra rehearsal.

The individual Voices keep coming back to to get the final details out of the pieces.
Then
The orchestra met again in the rehearsal room to play the pieces together play. This type of preparation is necessary to rehearse the demanding pieces to perfection, but it is worth it.

This year the AOB wants to offer its visitors a challenging and offer an entertaining program.
"The Thieving Magpie" and Latin American sounds like "Brasilia", "Sway" and "Blue Tango", just to name a few examples. In addition, the youth orchestra and the keyboard groups as well as as guests two young tournament dancers of Rot-Weiß Öhringen.

The spring concert will take place on Saturday, April 16, at 7.30 pm in the Brettachtalhalle in Bretzfeld Tickets are available at the Raiffeisenbank Bretzfeld, from all players and at the

GTO: Something is moving

This is the motto of the Osterburken all-day high school.
Students want to prove that they can really make a difference with an action that they carry out as part of of the "Earth Hour" project of the nature conservation organization WWF (World Wide Fund For Nature). The Project was carried out by some students the upper school under the direction of Michelle Erlmoser, member of WWF Youth, Lisa Wolf, Michelle Bühler, Tobias Tippelt and Barbara Walz made public. "I think it important to get young people on the environmental protection. I myself have been a member of WWF Youth since 2009 and have been actively involved in environmental and nature conservation ever since," explains the Project manager her motives
