

(VTC News)

ở cửa đón khách quốc tế trở lại, chị Isabelle Muller (quốc tịch Đức) đã đến Việt Nam trong ngày 16/3. Chị Muller dự kiến ở lại 1 tháng.

Upon hearing that Vietnam is reopening to international visitors, Ms. Isabelle Muller (German nationality) arrived in Vietnam on March 16. Ms. Muller plans to stay for 1 month.

"I have traveled to Vietnam many times, today I will return to Ho Chi Minh City, then move to Da Nang and Phu Quoc. The natural beauty in Vietnam is truly amazing," said Isabelle Muller.

According to Ms. Isabelle Muller, the reopening is truly an opportunity for the tourism industry in Ho Chi Minh City to recover after a long period of being severely affected by the COVID-19 pandemic.