On March 19, 2022, author Isabelle Müller delivered an exchange to present the work “The daughter of the Phoenix - Hope is my path ”, and exchange and share the body. Love with you readers. The exchange was held at Ho Chi Minh City Policy Theater - Nguyen Van Binh, District 1.

“The daughter of the Phoenix - Hopefully my path ” by Isabelle Müller tells the story of an outstanding woman, a woman with Vietnamese blood flowing in her veins, who does not allow yourself to be overwhelmed by unhappiness, rose to master his life and eventually - despite all the constraints of fate – became a successful businessman in Germany.

With the challenging motto of life “From every stone they throw in front of us, we will build a road ”, maybe in situations where others will fall, Isabelle did not give up. She was the youngest son of a Vietnamese mother and a French father, growing up in a poor, bondage French village. However, there was a brutal father and habitat with a racist spirit, but Isabelle inherited the living and courageous power towards the future from her Vietnamese mother.

Joining by author Isabelle Müller with the audience at the Tp HCM bookstore

Isabelle Müller's story is not only about finding happiness but also about the way to find it. It is about turning unhappiness into happiness, learning how to turn the negative spiral into a positive spiral. Whether she "has certainly experienced bad things, including sexual abuse, psychological terrorism, exhaustion, exclusion, discrimination, poverty, betrayal", but In return, she always told herself: "I have also experienced true love, warmth, affection, willingness to help, empathy, friendship, luck and happiness. And I am allowed to live healthy here on earth and enjoy this life." It can be seen that, despite having gone through the worst years, being sexually abused by their own relatives, suffering, being dumb, unable to tell anyone, living in despair for many years ... it was the ultimate pain that Isabelle suffered; but she did not surrender to adversity, tried to rise up and inspire people. The author encourages victims of sexual violence to disrupt the

Their silence to break the power of the culprit. For three and a half years, Isabelle Müller has spoken 150 times in eight federal states in front of an audience, a guest on television and radio, and was invited to the Federal President for her commitment.

The story of Isabelle Müller's life gives readers a lot of strength, hope, positive and courageous life force for everyone, especially girls who have been sexually abused, discriminated against. behave. It will encourage people to ask questions many times about things in life and themselves to conquer their own fears, believe in one's dreams, especially when they are said to be inaccessible. reach out to others, develop your own confidence. And even though she experienced the event, the tribulation, Isabelle was still optimistic, positive about what she had been building, "With our anger and hatred breaking everything, but with Our patience and love can build a temple from nothingness." This also implies forgiveness. The power of forgiveness can do wonders, "the attitude of life makes all ". The pain may be eternal, the scar deep in the heart, but forgiveness is the decision to free and save for both me and me.
