HAIR SALON HELL

Pforzheim, Hohenzollernstrasse 68

There's every reason to celebrate at the hair salon Hell in the Nordstadt: For a whopping 100 The company has existed for years. Founded on the corner Salierstraße/Ebersteinstraße, the location changed several times over the decades. During difficult economic times, the production of wigs and braids filled the "idle" space. Due to the air raid on February 23, 1945, The hairdresser's shop at the corner of Ebersteinstraße and Güterstraße was destroyed. The new beginning on the third floor of the father of Franz Hölle, the current owner, at Ebersteinstraße 26 above the stage. It certainly wasn't easy: only those with connections could get chairs and sinks. And the customers had to bring their own towels and wood for a head wash. Even after the currency reform in 1948, a new home had to be found - Ebersteinstrasse 12 was the new address. The company remained loyal to this location until 1989. Then a long A cherished wish came true: the move to our own premises at Hohenzollernstraße 68. Since January 1996, René Hölle has been running the business there in the third generation. craftsmanship and a large customer base. René Hölle's parents still work two days a week together with former apprentice Heike Walter, which celebrated its 25th anniversary last year. On the occasion of the 100th anniversary To mark its 100th anniversary, customers will be welcomed to a reception on Monday (November 8). Text/Photo: pm

"The Turning Point" had invited everyone to a reading - and they all came. Isabelle Müller as the evening's guest. Shortly after 7 p.m., the shop filled with expectant customers. Sparkling wine and tea, as well as small snacks with Cafe de Paris dip and bruschetta, were served. A sense of enjoyable anticipation set in. Then everyone went upstairs to the Citizens' Hall of Büchenbronn Town Hall - all 65 visitors found space and the hall was fully occupied. Isabelle Müller, the power woman with winning charisma, told and read thrilling and brilliant, subtle and exciting stories from her life and captivated the attentive visitors. Woman, whose spontaneous agreement to the reading in the "drehpunkt" Drehpunkt owner Andrea Neubauer is very proud. Extremely satisfied visitors waited after the performance patiently and animatedly discussing in the long queue to hear from Isabelle Müller to purchase a book signed with a personally dedicated saying. pm
