BY HERBERT SCHNÄBELE

Gurtweil – A lasting and profound introduction to Holy Week and Easter was celebrated by around 100 Visitors in the almost fully occupied Parish church on Sunday evening in Gurtweil during the performance of the church musical devotion "The Way of the Cross". Accompanied by District Cantor Michael Felix from Bad Säckingen on the organ The approximately 30 singers and Singers of the church choir a very impressive performance of the choral work of Hermann Simon, who Years before his death in 1948 in Berau and Tiengen and in Tiengen is buried.

Spokesman of the Board Hans Bernhard emphasized the meditative attunement on Holy Week and the Christian Resurrection. The musical accompaniment of the performance by Michael Felix was the choral prelude "Have mercy on me, O Lord God" by JS Bach for the beginning and the Toccata from the 4th Organ Symphony in F minor by Charles-Marie Widor in conclusion. In The actual work was the vocal representation of the 14 Stations of the Cross, each with a short organ prelude and profound religious texts initiated.

In very different chorales and choral settings adapted to the respective textual content, the church choir under the direction of Rita Schlageter succeeded in presenting the content of the Stations of the Cross in an extraordinary way.

The diverse Sound repertoire with high purity and pronounced dynamics as well as great sound intensity, which in the 14. Chorale with the radiant "To the Threshold the hero steps" reached its climax.

Pastor Andreas Lemmens thanked for the stylish and sensitive presentation of the Stations of the Cross. The requested collection goes to the work by Sister Regina from the Mari-abronnen House in a hospital village in Tanzania benefits.
