

Gruol girls take the victory

Six groups in the show dance competition of the Narrenzunft Frommern / Geislinger Tänzerinnen finished in second place

By Julia Klebitz

Balingen-Weilstetten. In
She goes for about three weeks
It's off again: the fifth season.
At the carnival guild Frommern started it on Saturday with a show dance competition in the Weilstetter gymnasium and festival hall.

Even though mainly the Fun and the subsequent Partying in the foreground stood – a little excitement could be seen in the young Dancers already. Because After all, it was also about the challenge cup for the best show dance group.

And passing the expert jury wasn't all that easy. That professional show dancing doesn't involve a little jumping around on the stage is done, the Criteria by which the jury judged the dances. How well is the overall idea? This is the central question. But also to music, lifting figures, The level of difficulty, choreography, costumes and charisma of the dancers are carefully considered.

Six groups presented themselves the competition. In addition to the competition, the host girls from Frommern fools' club

The wild wolves from Gruol are in the lead at the Frommern carnival guild's show dance competition.

Photo: Klebitz

visitors a lively dance number.

And even dancing Men could be admired at the show dance competition in Weilstetten.

»In the valley of the Dragons" was the name of the dance, which received continuous applause from the audience. And the men's dance group not be stingy and offered an encore.

Not about dragons, but but about wild wolves and two lost people who were captured by them, the Group from Gruol. With their The dancers secured first place in the "People in the Realm of Wolves" competition.

At the request of the spectators, the Gruoler, although the scenery was back in the car, once again to the victory dance. The joy the girls about their victory was unmistakable when she the stage in cheers broke out and spread in Wolf costume in the arms jumped. There were even tears of joy.

But the dancers of the other groups and clubs had reason to be happy, because a trophy and champagne was available to everyone. So the Group from Geislingen on second place. The Trill-finger dancers, who »Joshi's flowerbed« crazy played, came in third The groups from Zepingen, Wehingen and Zepfenhan shared fourth place.

Place.

The successful evening was celebrated with many creative people Costumes and unusual Then dance together with Party music.

BALINGEN

Driver mows

Guide posts around

Balingen. A complaint about Hit and run awaits you Driver after an incident on the federal highway 463 between Balingen and Weil-stetten.

According to police On Friday afternoon, the man drove his car to the right onto the green strip and then drove a guide post When counter-steering, the car into the oncoming lane and endangered the Driver of another car.

The perpetrator then simply drove on.

Some time later, a Witness who had observed the accident and told the Police the license plate of the the person responsible.

Rioters set fire straw bales

Balingen. Several bales of straw Unknown persons on Sunday around 1.30 a.m. on the Balingen market square. According to police, the Rioters the straw on the Sidewalk and on the street.

They placed a bale in the middle of Friedrichstrasse in Fire. The
Police station on telephone 07433/2640.

Singers' Association is pleased about reinforcement Balingen. The autumn evening with open singing lesson of the Balingen Singers' Association finds tomorrow, Tuesday, from 7 p.m. in the rehearsal room of the Zollern Castle. Men who Enjoy singing, are welcome.

Youth Art School still has places available Balingen. The youth art school at the adult education center Balingen is offering holiday courses. On Wednesday and Thursday, March 28 and 29 October, design Children from six years of age from 10 until 12 noon light houses in Clay and craft gifts.

At the painting and drawing studio from Monday, October 26, 14 until 4 p.m., children from eight years three afternoons long painting and drawing.
Marine animals and much more will be on Wednesday and Thursday, 28 and 29 October, from 10 to 12 o'clock in Made of wire and felt.
Sewing course for teenagers can from Tuesday, October 27, three Afternoons long accessories and gifts are made on the sewing machine.
Information and registration at the vhs Balingen, telephone.
07433/90800.

Teddy has many friends Lecture sparkles with joie de vivre

Bear market attracts many exhibitors and guests

By Denise Rosenkranz

Geislingen. Teddy bears as far as the eye could see, there were on Saturday in the Geislinger Schlossparkhalle. Around 40 Exhibitors attracted visitors with their a wide range of teddy friends.

They took the opportunity to get a plush friend or to give their childhood favorite a new outfit. Organizer Helene

Schwenzer was pleased about the great response.
was again Angelika Einsiedler from Neu-Ulm. She makes Bears and clothes on and chatted about what a teddy find be worth in the attic can, if it is a

It is a rarity.
already reach the six-figure range, she revealed.

First aid for Master Petz there was in »Anne's Doll and Bear Clinic. Also bear-like was the raffle, the proceeds of which the Alternative Bear Park Bad Rippoldsau-Schappach
The most beautiful

Teddy was chosen.

Simply bear-like: Guests marvel the displays. Photo: Rosenkranz

Roßwanger and Heselwanger youngsters receive plenty of applause

By Helga Jetter

Balingen-Heselwangen. Before
The youth bands of the Heselwangen and Roßwangen music clubs impressively demonstrated their skills in the Heselwangen clubhouse.

proved not only as young ambassadors of brass music, but also as figureheads of their clubs.
Stefan Günther presented the
The young musicians performed in public for the first time.

as a small band and received much applause. Disciplined and expressive the youth band from Roßwangen performed with their conductor Petro Hinterschuster on. With pep
The chapel set modern music literature. Loana Butz led charmingly the program.

Concentrated and with feeling: Heselwangen's youth band. Photo: Jetter

Feeling and rhythm united the youth band Heselwangen under the direction of Adrian Ullrich. The host band also on modern music literature contemporary composers.

Whether the sensitive description of the Black Forest or the return to the Beatles: The Musicians were found in every topic and reflected the joy of life. This group also continued with an encore

the resounding final point.
In rhyming words
Vanessa Albrecht and Marei-ke Seisser led the program. They proudly took over the Heselwangen
Music Association, Wolfgang Jetter, the slogan of the district music association: »We make the music.«

A book as a "source of strength"

Author Isabelle Müller captivates listeners with her autobiography Balingen (ip). Numerous visitors were quietly and visibly moved by Isabelle Müller

listened. In the Neue Buchhandlung Rieger in Balingen
The author from Kapfenhardt near Pforzheim gave a

Sample from her autobiography »Phoenix Daughter – the Hope was my path."
The book is available this year in

Published by Krüger-Verlag.
"I could listen to you for hours," one visitor suggested, suggesting that an audiobook be made. As a daughter a Vietnamese woman and a French, the author describes her extraordinary life story with stations in France, Germany, Kazakhstan and Vietnam.

»Believe in yourself, make decisions and stand by them«, gave the now successful entrepreneur gave visitors a tip on how to survive crises.

Isabelle Müller had own statements »hell on earth«:

The author Isabelle Müller (second of left) at her reading in Balingen.

Photo: Prokoph

Racism, exclusion, poverty and nine years of sexual abuse by her father. Guided by throughout her life she was inspired by the wisdom and inner strength of her Mother Loan, said the 45-year-old. Her mother taught her the Asian belief in higher heavenly powers and mediated to oneself.

»Praying is, from the deepest hearts,« explained Isabelle Müller when asked how how to pray properly. She has mer tries to fall asleep with a positive thought and held on to beauty so as not to break down in despair.

After the second failed suicide attempt, finally, they searched for meaning of life and forgave her Father the unforgivable.

»Your book is a source of "Power,« said a young visitor.
Bookseller Jürgen Rieger concluded that the reading was deeply impressive.

Maffay and Weizsäcker

Balingen group explores book fair

By Sabine Stotz

Balingen. A group from the adult education center with 42 participants, the Visited the book fair in Frankfurt.

There, the people of Balingen were expecting interesting readings – among others by Michael Buback and Peter Maffay.
On the »blue sofa« of the ZDF Richard von Weizsäcker took a seat, and children's book author Markus Pfister read from his new book »The Rainbow Fish Discovers the Deep Sea«. In addition,

There are plenty of new releases to discover. Guest of honor China presented itself with various actions.
In addition,
the open-air Chinese Artist goods are offered. The Tibet Initiative Germany pointed out that still precarious situation in the region occupied by China.

Packed with a lot of information material and the one or other promotional gift from the publishers, the Group back to Balingen.

A large group with a penchant for reading: 42 Balingen residents experience a interesting trip to the Frankfurt trade fair. Photo: Stotz

Gospel choir gives two concerts

Balingen. The Holy Spirit Gospel Choir is hosting two gospel concerts in Dunningen and Balingen. The concert in Dunningen will take place on Saturday, October 24th, from 7 p.m. in St. Martinus Church, the concert in Balingen on Sunday, October 25, from 6 p.m. o'clock in the Holy Spirit Church.

WE CONGRATULATE

and BALINGEN. Käte Lotzmann, Eckenerweg 8, 76 years old. Erna Geyer, Am Mühlkanal 19, 80
Years. Julianna Jetter, Keplerstrasse 14, 82 years old.
u FROMMERN. Erwin Zim-mermann, Hesselbergstrasse
15, 76 years old. Walter Jäck, Ba-linger Straße 26, 81 years old.
Gerhard Weinreich, Konrad-Adenauer-Straße 16/1, 89.
u DÜRRWANGEN. Wilhelm
Bruckner, Ebinger Straße
49/1, 77 years old.
uWEILSTETTEN. Irmgard Sauter, Untere Dorfstraße 85, 72
Years. Ernst Hess, Ulmenstrasse
8, 81 years old.
u ERZINGEN. Erna Luippold, Bilderhäuslestraße 27, 79.